

SH'OR YOSHUV RABBINICAL COLLEGE

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Internal Complaint

A student wishing to file a complaint may submit it to the Yeshiva office in writing, addressed to the attention of the Rosh HaYeshiva. The complaint will be presented to the Board of Directors at one of its subsequent meetings. A response in writing will be given to the student within 30 days following the board meeting.

Similarly, any student may appeal a decision of dismissal. An appeal letter with all supportive documentation should be submitted to the Rosh Yeshiva's office within 60 days of receipt of the notification of dismissal. The appeal board, headed by the Rosh Yeshiva, will notify the student as to its final decision within 45 days of the start of the appeal process.

AARTS Complaint

All students also have the right to submit complaints to AARTS, the agency which accredits Sh'or Yeshuv Rabbinical College. A written complaint should be sent to: Association of Advanced Rabbinical and Talmudic Schools (AARTS) 2329 Nostrand Ave., M-200, Brooklyn, NY 11210, with the title: Student Complaint - Sh'or Yeshuv Rabbinical College. AARTS can also be contacted by telephone: 212.363.1991, or fax: 212.533.5335.

NY State Complaint Policy

For all types of complaints concerning colleges and universities in New York State, the first course of action must be to try to resolve the complaint directly with the administration of the college or university involved. The Office of College and University Evaluation will not review a complaint until all grievance procedures at the institution have been followed and all avenues of appeal exhausted and documentation provided that such procedures have been exhausted. Please note: Every New York State college and university is required to establish, publish, and enforce explicit policies related to redress of grievances.

Please do not send a complaint to the Office of College and University Evaluation until you have read all of the information below. This will assure that you are sending your complaint to the appropriate agency/office.

The Office of College and University Evaluation handles only those complaints that concern educational programs or practices of degree-granting institutions subject to the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, with the exceptions noted below.

- The Office does not handle anonymous complaints.
  - The Office does not intervene in matters concerning an individual's grades or examination results, as these are the prerogative of the college's faculty.
  - The Office does not handle complaints concerning actions that occurred more than five years ago.
  - The Office does not intervene in matters that are or have been in litigation.
- Complaints concerning programs in fields leading to professional licensure (e.g., nursing) should be directed to:

Office of the Professions
Professional Education Program Review
Education Building, 2 West
Albany, NY 12234
