

SH'OR YOSHUV RABBINICAL COLLEGE

DISABILITY SERVICES

In conformance with federal laws, Sh'or Yeshuv Rabbinical College does not discriminate against or refuse admission to any male student of the Orthodox Jewish faith for reasons relating to age, race, color, national origin or physical handicap.

We are an equal opportunity employer and comply with the following laws: Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Higher Education Re-Authorization Act of 1992, the Higher Education Technical Amendments of 1998, and any other amendments and applicable laws pertaining to federal student aid programs.

Those who are physically handicapped should contact the Yeshiva office at (516) 239-9002 to inquire about facilities for the disabled.

Our educational techniques at Sh'or Yeshuv stem from our firm belief that each student who enrolls in our Yeshiva is unique and deserving of a very special, individualized education. Each student is taught with the utmost degree of patience and understanding. He benefits from our novel brand of individual attention while learning competitively with other students. Each student progresses accordingly to the full extent which his motivation and background in Jewish Studies allows.

Sh'or Yeshuv Rabbinical College does not have a program for students with intellectual disabilities. Sh'or Yeshuv Rabbinical College provides reasonable academic accommodations for students with intellectual disabilities.
